1. PROTECTION OF CONSUMERS

The Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act 37 of 2002 protects consumers by regulating the financial advice and intermediary services provided by a Financial Services Provider (FSP), ensuring that consumers are adequately informed about the products they purchase and the product suppliers, in order for them to make informed decisions.

2. REGULATION OF ADVICE-GIVING ACTIVITIES.

The FAIS Act requires GENRIC e.g. staff that appear on the Financial Services Board register to be equipped with the necessary skills, qualifications and experience ('fit and proper' requirements) to provide a financial service suited to the client's needs. The key individuals of GENRIC have to comply with similar fit and proper requirements in order for GENRIC to maintain its FAIS licence.

3. TRANSPARENCY

In terms of the FAIS Act, GENRIC must:

- Disclose to the client that it holds a licence to provide such service;
- Provide all the necessary information regarding the product and the supplier;
- Where appropriate and where advice was given directly to the client, provide details of remuneration.

4. CONSUMER PLATFORM FOR COMPLAINTS

The FAIS Act also provides consumers with a platform to address their complaints in a fair and procedural manner. In terms of the Act, a complaint must relate to a financial service rendered by GENRIC to the complainant, in which it is alleged that GENRIC:

- has contravened or failed to comply with the FAIS Act and that as a result thereof the complainant has suffered or is likely to suffer financial prejudice or damage;
- has wilfully or negligently rendered a financial service to the complainant which has caused prejudice or damage to the complainant or which is likely to result in such prejudice or damage; or
- has treated the complainant unfairly.
